

DR MAX JOHN WENGAWENGA - PROFILE

Dr Max John Wengawenga is an Assistant Chief Economic Advisor to the President of the Republic of Malawi. He holds a PhD in Economics from the Capital University of Economics and Business, Beijing, China, a Master's degree in International Development from the International University of Japan and an economics Bachelor's degree from the University of Malawi. He is a recipient of the 2010 International Trade Centre's Trade Leader Fellowship award. Prior to his appointment as an Economic Advisor, Dr Wengawenga had served the Malawi Government for 15 years in the areas of economic research, planning and policy analysis. He is also a university lecturer, reviewer of academic standards in institutions of higher learning and a consultant. He has consulted for the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA), Southern Africa Development Community (SADC), International Crops Research Institute for the Semi-Arid Tropics (ICRISAT) and OXFAM, among others.